Understanding this report

In each learning area, students are marked against descriptors for their achievement in the individual outcomes that are assessed during the reporting period.

Achievement scale

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ACHIEVEMENT DESCRIPTORS</th>
<th></th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>The student demonstrates excellent achievement of what is expected for this year level.</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>The student demonstrates high achievement of what is expected for this year level.</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>The student demonstrates satisfactory achievement of what is expected for this year level.</td>
<td></td>

<tr>
<td>The student demonstrates limited achievement of what is expected for this year level.</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>The student demonstrates very low achievement of what is expected for this year level.</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

The descriptors summarise the standard (or quality) of achievement associated with each level. The scale describes the depth of knowledge and understanding and the range of skills that students typically show.

Maintaining a level in a learning area from one semester to the next is an indication of positive achievement and expected development.

COMMENT

In Religion, Sienna has compared and contrasted the lives of those who have plenty with those who are in need. She has also highlighted those in society that need to give back, to people who are needy. Sienna understands the characteristics of Sin and has brainstormed ways Catholic's can try to live their lives without sin. She has predicted what the world would be like if everyone preached the Kingdom of God. Sienna also recognises that Jesus calls his followers to contribute to family life, through their actions and words.

COMMENT

Sienna has shown great potential in her essay writing this semester. She has worked hard to improve her essay writing skills this semester. She must learn to provide detailed evidence from the text to support her argument in all essays. She needs to focus on the introduction to her essays, to ensure that she has a clear thesis statement, which addresses the question.

GENERAL COMMENT

Sienna is an exemplary student. She has a quiet, conscientious approach, is well prepared for lessons and the standard of her work is always excellent. She understands concepts readily as is evidenced by her writing; however, I would encourage her to build her confidence and contribute more frequently during class discussions. I wish her continued success next semester.
